Workshop Program

If you have attended our seminars on Developing Confidence and want to extend what Anne presented to you in that program, this is definitely for you. A great opportunity to learn in more depth the valuable skill of being assertive.

Anne Evans-Murray and Kaye Laemmle will add to your understanding of what being assertive means and more importantly demonstrate the techniques you can use to be more assertive in your day-to-day interactions with others at work and in your private life. Kaye is a very experienced counsellor and coach, specialising in assertiveness training and managing bullying behaviour.

This workshop will be a relaxed and enjoyable session with a smaller number of like-minded people in a non-threatening environment.

There will be an opportunity to try role-play if you wish, but this is voluntary!
